

THE FIRST STATE MODEL RAILROAD CLUB, INC. NEWSLETTER

FEBRUARY 2019

NEXT MEETING:

The next meeting of The First State Model Railroad Club, Inc. will be held on Tuesday, February 12 at 7:30 P.M. at Jarrell Station at 1282 McKee Road, in Dover, DE.

NOTES FROM PRESIDENT EATON:

As I sit here and write this article, I have just sent out an email (well Joyce actually forwarded my email) canceling the work night for Thursday night due to the cold weather. I have been outside today and it's already cold, at least to me, and it's only 34 degrees. Tomorrow the forecast high will be 22 degrees. So tomorrow I am going to start a fire in my fireplace and sit here and enjoy it.

Speaking of starting a fire, we need to get the layout ready to take to Wilmington on the 16th and 17th of February so let's get fired up and fix any items on the DCC layout that don't look right. I am really excited about going this year since we have not been there for two years. We need to put on a good show so we can be invited back again. Remember, if you are not running a train, and even if you are, engage (talk to) the people visiting our display. Talk about the trains, the club and ask if they have any questions about the hobby; remember the hobby is model trains which mean fun and it's the world's greatest hobby. Talk us and the hobby up. I just hope the weather holds out and we don't get a snow storm that weekend. I have found out we can go up Friday the 15th between 2:00 and 7:30 to set up. That will allow us more time and not have to be rushed Saturday and leave at zero dark thirty or rush though breakfast. Also, please let me know if you want to run trains that weekend. I like to allow as many members to run trains as we can. Remember, only members in good standing will be allowed to run trains so make sure your 2018 and 2019 dues are paid in full.

A group of us are still working on plans to redo one of the modules on the DCC layout. So, if you are interested in helping just jump right in there and give us your ideas. Also, for those who do not know, we are working with Ralph to help him get a layout up and running. The first thing we need to help him with is to select a railroad plan. He has some ideas of what he wants. We now have to take those ideas and help him develop them. He wants an 11' by 6' layout. Again, if you want to help him just jump in there with your ideas. If I'm not around, check in with Buzz for module help and Ralph if you want to help him with his layout.

Besides the train show in Wilmington on the 16th and 17th we have Smyrna High School on the February 23rd, which is the weekend after the Wilmington show. Don't forget we have the scout merit badge class March 9 and the St. Georges show on March 23rd. If you'd like to help with the merit badge class, please contact Jeff or Paul and ask what you can help with.

I hope all of you who went to the Amherst show had a great time and got great deals. I can't wait to read Paul's article on that event, as I'm sure all of you are.

As you can see, the next few months are going to be busy and I hope everyone will help with these events. Again, have a good month and be safe and well out there.

Sam Eaton, President

FSMRRC SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS TRIP 2019:

The annual Amherst Society Railroad Hobby Show was held at the Eastern States Exposition, West Springfield, MA, on Saturday and Sunday, January 26 and 27, 2019. Despite a late change in the show coordinator, from Jim Thompson to Paul Roy, the event was a huge success. Ultimately, Jim and Carolyn were not able to make the trip and were missed. The group of ten left early on Friday, with a total of three vehicles: Paul and Lena Roy and Lauralee Plaisted, Felton; Les and Ann Souder and Myrna Valle, Dover; Paul and Paula Buckley, Smyrna; Buzz Matthews, Camden; and John Grey, who came all the way from Mississippi. After a couple of stops on the New Jersey Turnpike and lunch on the Garden State Parkway, we headed for Springfield. We arrived at the Sheraton Monarch Hotel at 4:00 pm. The hotel now has new door locks. All one needs to do is to swipe the key card on the designated area for entry. Isn't modern technology wonderful! As we were checking in, Henry Kramer arrived from New York to join. At 6:30 pm, we departed to the Cracker Barrel, North Holyoke for dinner and then back to the hotel for some needed rest and a good night's sleep.

Saturday morning the men met for a delicious and generous hotel buffet breakfast – a perfect start to another adventure at the train show! We departed for the show at 8:30 pm, and with Steam Whistle and Diesel Horns sounding at 9:00 am sharp, doors opened and the great train adventure 2019 commenced!

After breakfast at the hotel, the ladies, Lena, Lauralee, Ann, Paula, and Myrna, departed for Yankee Candle, with Ann as the driver. Lena reported that all had a great time and made some interesting purchases.

At the show, all the men split up in search of good deals. Judging from the bags I saw, we all made some good buys. I found one of two items that were on top of my list, which was the latest version of the Tank Train cars painted in white. The Omya paint over cars by Athearn have not been released yet. However, I did find some additional nice stuff. I also picked up Bill Benzin's order. Thanks Bill for letting me keep the change! Just kidding! We departed from the Mallory Complex at 4:30 and headed for the hotel to rest up before going out for dinner.

One observation I should mention: It seemed to me that there were less vendors and more layouts this year.

This trip we were looking for a different culinary adventure for our Saturday evening meal. So I challenged Ann and Les to research some area restaurants, and that they did! After discussing options at our "Trivia Night" before the event, present participating parties (Souders, Roys and Myrna) agreed on "The Munich Haus" as being the best choice. A reservation was then made, but the earliest available was at 8:00 pm. The late seating, however, turned out to be more than worthwhile! The restaurant was great! As soon as I walked in, I knew we had made the right choice. It was packed and full of music and cheer! We were seated in a semi-private area and the service and food were excellent! The German décor and ambiance included waitresses dressed in German Bavarian style attire and a delightful accordion-playing gentleman, wearing a hat that looked like a mug of beer. He gave us a special performance right at our table – all of us were singing and swaying to the music – and complimented it with conversation and jokes. This wonderful experience also brought back such fond memories to Paul Buckley and me of our time in Germany long ago. The Munich Haus was a wonderful experience and it's a keeper. If we make the journey next year, we will make earlier reservations.

Sunday started with all enjoying breakfast at the hotel buffet. I must comment on its excellent quality. The food is great with plenty of choices and, best of all, it's all you can eat!

At around 9:30 am, the men departed for the show. Some visited areas they didn't get to on Saturday (Saturdays are very crowded) and some went back to various vendors to purchase items they had spotted on Saturday, but at the time couldn't make up their minds to buy. We departed the show at around noon. The Gals were ready for us, complete with bags, at the hotel lobby. We all departed at 1:00 pm for home. Thankfully, Sunday traffic was good. We made the usual rest stop on the Garden State Parkway and then at the Cracker Barrel in Pennsville, New Jersey for dinner. After a great meal and adventure, we all said our goodbyes and departed for home. We couldn't have asked for better weather or a better trip. Speaking for myself, I'm ready to do it again next year!

I need to thank some folks: Jim Thompson, who started the planning and assisted in correcting the hotel reservations; Joyce Stockslager for taking care of the arm bands for us; Buzz Mathews for keeping track of the finances; and, of course, all who participated in this trip. Your amiable cooperation created, without a doubt, a smoother and more pleasant journey. I can't say enough about the camaraderie among all of us! Of all the clubs and organizations I belong to, The FSMRRC is the best! We all have a great rapport with one another and have a great time on all the different activities we do.
